

Pinus sabiniana--FOOTHILL or GRAY PINE cones of Foothill Pine

Blue Oak and Foothill Pine live only in California (Golden State endemics).

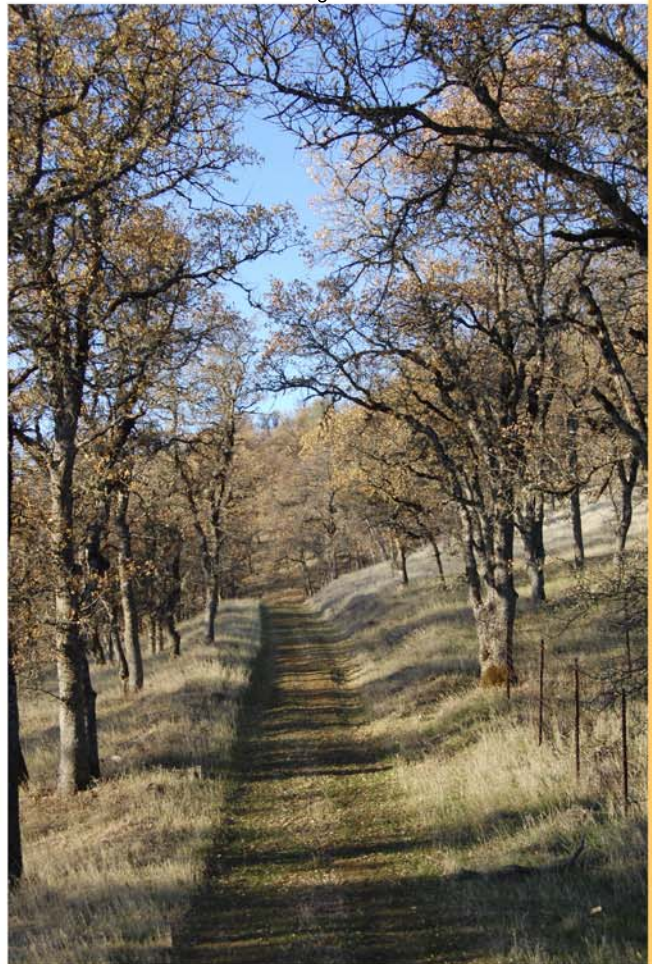

They are abundant in the foothills ringing the Great Central Valley.

sources:

Conifers of California by Ronald M. Lanner and Oaks of California by Bruce M Pavlik, et al.

Quercus douglasii--BLUE OAK

Chamise is a common sight along the Pacific Crest Trail in Southern California source: personal observation

Adenostoma fasciculatum--CHAMISE

nomenclature from The Jepson Manual